

The DisplaySearch Monitor, an industry business journal

Premium information just for the display industry.

News articles, product presentations, conferences, and more. It is difficult to stay abreast of this rapidly changing industry. It is even more difficult to understand how the latest news and developments may impact you.

This online resource gives readers a deep database of articles backed by DisplaySearch proprietary research. In addition, each month's articles are packaged into a monthly report. Along with excerpts from the latest reports, this online business review supplies insightful analysis on the latest product and channel news.

Testimonials

"We have relied on The DisplaySearch Monitor as a key source of information since the day we were founded. Our team reviews it to "look beyond the horizon" so we can strategically plan for our business by understanding new products and technologies and getting visibility on the supply chain, particularly in Asia. We depend on The DisplaySearch Monitor to deliver and filter information that we cannot find anywhere else."

Chris Bright, Corporate Communications Manager
Pixelworks

"Thank you so much for your excellent newsletter The DisplaySearch Monitor, truly interesting reading! It's really amazing how much information is in this newsletter. I really wonder why every related company is not subscribing."

Per Lyngemark
Paceblade

"The DisplaySearch Monitor is the most comprehensive display industry monthly publication available, providing snapshots of the latest commercial and technical developments for all display technologies. With the newly added retail section, the report has expanded its coverage from display components to consumer-ready integrated display systems."

Joe Virginia, VP of Sales and Marketing
Samsung LCD Business, Americas Region

"Since attending the first DisplaySearch conference seven years ago, I have found the company's research to be invaluable in understanding the flat panel industry. The quality and thoroughness of the research is unmatched. By far--the best industry specific research company that I have found in the technology space. The DisplaySearch Monitor is a key tool in keeping on top of the rapidly evolving flat panel industry."

JD Abouchar, Sr. Analyst
Pacific Edge Investment Management, Inc

"Your DisplaySearch Monitor newsletter has been very helpful to Portrait Displays, Inc. The information helps us set our strategic direction. No other place has such complete coverage of the LCD business."

J. Michael James, President
Portrait Displays
