

Monthly Large-Area LCD and PDP Pricing

Fast, reliable pricing information.

This monthly report provides subscribers with reliable market average prices for mainstream mini-note, notebook PC, LCD monitor, LCD TV and PDP TV panels. DisplaySearch analysts also discuss price trends, cost trends and relevant panel market conditions and monthly price gap comparisons. This report now also covers LED backlit monitor, LCD TV and notebook displays.

DisplaySearch extensively surveys the sales and marketing organizations of display producers, as well as the procurement organizations of notebook PC, LCD monitor and LCD and PDP TV producers. By surveying both the seller and the buyer, DisplaySearch provides more reliable monthly pricing data than the competition.

Prices in this report represent typical market prices to OEM manufacturers for A- grade panels. To reflect accurate market trends over time, market outliers that are indicative of special deals or "spot" prices are eliminated.
